

MEETING ROOM POLICY

I. Introduction and Purpose of Policy.

The mission of the Wayne Public Library (“Library”) is to partner with the community to provide life-long learning experiences. In keeping with this mission, the Library provides facilities for Library programs as well as Library business meetings. When certain Library space is not scheduled for Library-sponsored or co-sponsored events, it may be used by the public within the parameters set by this policy. The restrictions of this policy do not apply to Library-sponsored or co-sponsored events.

II. Application and Scheduling of Meeting Room.

- A. General Use. Any person, group, or organization may use the Meeting Rooms, pursuant to the requirements of this policy (“Users”). The Meeting Rooms are available during regular Library hours for Library programs, meetings, classes, and book groups, for example.

All meetings in the Meeting Rooms must be free and open to the public. Private events such as parties, receptions, and showers are not allowed.

- B. Specific Meeting Rooms. The following are a list of specific meeting rooms or meeting areas (“Meeting Rooms”). The regulations contained in this policy apply to all Meeting Rooms, unless otherwise specified.

1. Thomas H. Kelly Community Room (“Large Meeting Room”)

The Thomas H. Kelly Community Room may be divided into two smaller meeting rooms, “Meeting Room A” and “Meeting Room B”

2. Paulette Medvecky Storytime Room

- C. Scheduling and Application Process.

1. Any person 18 years or older may fill out a Meeting Room Application.
2. The Library is responsible for scheduling use of all Meeting Rooms.
3. Applications shall be accepted on a first-come-first-serve basis, with Library business, Library-sponsored, and Library-co-sponsored events having first priority.
4. Non-Library sponsored or co-sponsored meetings and events will not be scheduled more than twelve months in advance.
5. The Library will contact you with confirmation that your Application is accepted. Do not assume that your reservation is complete upon submission of the Application.
6. If you need to cancel the reservation, you must provide the Library 48 hours’ notice.

III. General Guidelines Affecting all Library Meeting Rooms.

- A. Smoking and Fire. No smoking, candles, matches or any other use of fire shall be permitted in the Meeting Rooms.
- B. Use by Persons Under the Age of 18. Users of the Meeting Rooms must be under adequate supervision by adults 18 years of age or older. The Meeting Room Application requires the listing of an adult who will be in charge of the group, as well as being financially responsible for any damages that may occur. This listed adult must be on site during the reserved meeting time. In addition, there must be one adult supervisor for every twelve minors.
- C. Tobacco, Alcohol and Controlled Substances Prohibited. The Library prohibits the use of tobacco, alcohol and the illicit use of controlled substances in the Meeting Rooms.
- D. Food and Beverages. Users of the Meeting Rooms may serve light refreshments, but only if approved by the Library at the time the User requests and receives permission to use the Meeting Rooms. It is the responsibility of the User to observe all health codes when serving light refreshments.
- E. Disruption Prohibited. Users making excessive noise that disrupts normal Library functions or other patrons' use of the Library may be asked to leave. This includes conducting the meeting or any part of the meeting outside of the Meeting Rooms.
- F. Equipment Requests. Requests for use of audio or visual equipment, tables, chairs and any equipment owned by the Library must be made at the time the venue is scheduled. The Library does not guarantee the availability of any equipment.
- G. Clean Up. It is the User's responsibility to leave the room in the condition (including furniture arrangements) in which they found it. The User must remove leftover food, containers, beverages and all other personal or group-owned items. Failure to clean up may result in a cleaning fee and/or forfeiting the privilege of using the room in the future. Users must include time to clean up and set up within the scheduled time and must end meetings at least 30 minutes before the Library closing time.
- H. Library Policies. Users shall observe all rules of conduct and policies applicable to Library patrons.
- I. Occupancy. Users shall permit no more persons than is stated by occupancy requirements.
- J. No Raffles and Contribution Requests. Users shall not sell tickets, raffles, or any objects. Users shall not charge a fee for attendance or solicit contributions from persons located anywhere in the Library or on Library property.

- K. Private Literature. Users shall not distribute personal or group literature, brochures and other materials to Library patrons outside of the Meeting Rooms. Users shall not leave printed materials on Library property without prior approval of the Library Director or in accordance with Library Policy.
- L. Use of Walls and Other Surfaces. No decorations or other materials may be attached or affixed to the walls, windows, doors or other surfaces unless approved by the Library. If such approval is granted, any such material must be removed at the close of the scheduled time.
- M. Storage. Users may not store personal or group-owned items at the Library, unless permission is granted by the Library Director.
- N. Open and Accessible Use. All activities in the Meeting Rooms must be open to the public, must be accessible to people with disabilities in accordance with the Americans with Disabilities Act, and must be free of admission fees, other charges, or requests for donations.
- O. Promotion. Any publicity for an event held in a Library Meeting Room must state, "This is not a library-sponsored event" and include contact information for the person, group, or organization running the event.

IV. Fees.

- A. Meeting Room Rental Fee. The fees for Meeting Room Rentals will be listed on the Meeting Room Application. The Meeting Room Rental Fee may be reduced or waived at the Library Director's discretion for organizations or events that support the cultural, educational, governmental, or informational needs and interests of the community.
- B. Clean Up, Damage, and Cancellation Fees. A fee may be charged if the Meeting Room is not cleaned up as required by this policy or if a reservation is cancelled with less than 48 hours' notice. Cleaning and Cancellation Fees will be listed on the Meeting Room Application. Users shall pay for any actual damage to the Meeting Rooms or Library Equipment.

V. Library Disclaimer.

- A. No Endorsement. Use of the Meeting Room does not constitute the Library's endorsement of an individual's or group's policies or beliefs by any of the Library staff or Board members.
- B. Right to Cancel. If necessary, the Library reserves the right to cancel the use of the Meeting Room, including but not limited to inclement weather, building closures, or special events.

- C. Hold Harmless. The Wayne Public Library and the City of Wayne are released and held harmless from any and all claims for personal injury or property damage.

VI. Violation and Appeal Section:

The Library Director or the Director's designee may restrict access to Library facilities, including the Library Meeting Rooms, by immediately dismissing the patron from the premises, by suspending the patron's access to Library facilities for a set period of time, or by denying access to specific services and/or programs pursuant to this Policy. If necessary, the local police may be called to intervene.

- A. Incident Reports. Library Staff shall record in writing in the form of an Incident Report any violation of this Policy that resulted in a verbal warning or a suspension of Library privileges. By the end of the day on which the incident occurred, an Incident Report shall be written and forwarded to the Library Director for logging and review. The report should include physical descriptions, in addition to the name of the patron. A copy of the suspension of privileges letter should be attached, if applicable.

- B. Violation of the Policy – Suspension of Privileges. Unless otherwise provided in this Policy, (see Section C below), the Library shall handle violations as follows:
 - 1. Initial Violation: Library patrons observed violating this policy will be asked to cease the violation with a verbal request. If the patron does not comply with the request, he or she will be asked to leave the building for the day. If he or she refuses, the police may be called.
 - 2. Subsequent Violations: The Director or the Director's authorized designee may further limit or revoke the patron's Library privileges if infractions continue. Such limitation or revocation shall be in writing specifying the nature of the violation. Subsequent violations of the same rule shall result in additional suspensions of increasing length.

- C. Violations that Affect Safety and Security. Violations involving verbal abuse, violence, threatening behaviors, sexual harassment, vandalism, drug sale or use or attempted drug sale or use, intoxication, theft or attempted theft, physical harassment, sexual misconduct or any behavior that threatens the safety and security of staff and/or patrons shall be handled as follows:
 - 1. Initial Violation: The police will be called immediately. If the conduct constitutes a violation of local, state, or federal law, arrest or criminal prosecution may ensue. Violations of this nature will result in an immediate one (1) month suspension of Library privileges. The Incident Report shall specify the nature of the violation.
 - 2. Subsequent Violations: The police will be called immediately. If the conduct constitutes a violation of local, state, or federal law, arrest or criminal prosecution may ensue. The Director or the Director's authorized designee, may further limit or revoke the patron's Library privileges in escalating responses, which will be documented in writing. Subsequent violations of the same rule will result in additional suspensions of increasing length.

- D. Reinstatement: The User whose privileges have been limited or revoked shall attend a meeting with the Director or the Director's designee to review the Policy before their privileges may be reinstated.

- F. Right of Appeal: Users or applicants may appeal a decision in writing to the Library Director within 10 business days of the date of the written decision stating why Library privileges should be restored.

The Library Director or a designee will respond to the appeal in writing within 10 business days of the date the appeal was received. Any person may appeal the Library Director's decision by sending an appeal in writing to the President of the Library Board within 10 business days. The decision of the Library Board is final.
